

Restaurants

Asta's Swiss Restaurant

Route 30, Jamaica VT

T: +1 802 874 8000

W: www.astasswissinn.com

A touch of Europe in a cozy atmosphere. Enjoy traditional European cuisine, mostly Swiss inspired together with American delicacies. Open Wednesday through Sunday evenings. Sit by the cozy fireplace and dip into their delicious cheese fondue.

Bryant House Restaurant

Route 100, Weston VT

T: 1 802 824 6287

W: www.vermontcountrystore.com

We invite you to stop by and enjoy a traditional New England lunch or afternoon tea and homemade pie at the Bryant House Restaurant. It's next door to the Vermont Country Store and open year round.

Burdick's Restaurant

47 Main Street, Walpole, NH

T: +1 603 756 9058

W: www.burdickchocolate.com

A totally European experience: fine bistro food, elegant décor, and a most marvelous chocolate shop. Delicacies are made right on the premises with the finest chocolate. They also have a decadent gourmet food shop. Reservations advised

Chantecleer

Route 7A North, Manchester, VT

T: +1 802 362 1616

W: www.chantecleerrestaurant.com

A more traditional French style restaurant, classic French and Swiss dishes in an elegant converted barn setting. Frog's legs, Air dried beef, Sole served at the table. Reservations advised.

Fireworks

73 Main Street, Brattleboro, VT 05301

T: +1 802 254 2073

W: www.fireworksrestaurant.net

A new local favorite, right on Brattleboro's Main Street, Fireworks offers great pizza, pasta, creative appetizers and main courses in a very relaxed and comfortable atmosphere. Most of the ingredients are local and organic. A Windham Hill staff favorite. Open for dinner Wednesday through Sunday.

Newfane Creamery

550 VT Route 30, Newfane VT

T: +1 802 365 4442

A perfect stop, while driving along Route 30 towards Brattleboro. Enjoy the ever changing and eclectic menu, created with the freshest local and organic ingredients. Be sure to save room for their delicious homemade sorbets and ice creams. Open Tuesday to Sunday, 7am until 7 pm.

Rick's Tavern

Newfane VT

T: +1 802 365 4310

W: www.rickstavern.net

Casual restaurant and bar with live music occasionally. Full dinner menu and takeout 11 am to 10 pm, open 6 days, closed on Tuesdays.

Simon Pearce - Dining

The Mill. Quechee VT

T: +1 802 295 1470

W: www.simonpearce.com

This is the highlight of any day-trip to the Woodstock area - Lunch at Simon Pearce. House specialties include homemade breads and soups, fresh salads, seafood, roast duck and an award-winning wine list. May be crowded during busy seasons but no problem, they give you a pager and let you wander around in the glass showroom. No finer example of guerrilla marketing! Lunch served daily 11:30am - 2:45pm The Mill - in the heart of Quechee Village.

T. J. Buckley

132 Elliot Street, opposite Fire Station, Brattleboro VT

T: +1 802 257 4922

In a very small restaurant in a beautifully restored caboose. Chef owner, Michael E. Fuller, produces fabulous food. Reservations essential. Cash or checks only.

Townshend Dam Diner

Route 30, Townshend, VT 05353

T: +1 802 874 4107

F: +1 802 874 7128

Quality homemade food at reasonable prices. Breakfast served all day, featuring all the favorites plus homemade bread, French toast, stuffed omelettes. Lunch from 11 am. Homemade soups, burgers, seafood, salads and daily specials. Also catering and wholesale bakery. Best homemade food for your money by a dam site. Open 7 days a week from 5 am to 8 pm. 2 miles north of Townshend Dam.

Vermont Country Deli

436 Western Ave., Brattleboro, VT 05301

T: +1 802 257 9254

W: www.vermontcountrydeli.com

Fresh baked goods and many fine Deli offerings made daily. Many Vermont specialty items. Currently used as our picnic source before Marlboro concerts. On Route 9 (Western Ave) just west of Route 91's Exit 2.